

HIKE No. 2813-Wapsi River environmental Center-Dixon, IA
Saturday, February 17, 2024 – 1:30 PM

The Wapsi Center is a great place for all seasons, but winter hiking is special. We will meet in the parking lot by the education center. Come early to tour the center's great displays and meet the owl. The hike will take us downhill through the woods to the river and then up again. If you have snowshoes, this is a great place for them. At the very least, you will want hiking sticks.
