

HIKE No. 2814 –Scott County Nature Trail – Parkview, IA (A Dog Hike)

Saturday, February 24, 2024 – 1:30 PM

Scott County Park is the largest park in the county and is a favorite of campers, hikers, bikers and trail-riders. On this dog-friendly hike, we will enjoy the beauty of the woods and check out the buildings of Dan Nagle Pioneer Village. If you wish to bring your dog, be sure to read the Dog Hike Rules in the back of the hike bulletin book. Dogs are not allowed in the buildings.

Directions: Take your preferred route to US 61 on the north edge of Davenport. Follow US 61 and exit at the Long Grove exit. At the stop sign, turn right and follow the road to a 4-way stop at the west edge of Park View. Turn left, then turn right at 270th St. Drive about 1 ½ miles to the entrance of the park, on your left. Follow HIKE signs to the parking lot near Cody Lake.
